

Concert of New Music for Piano Quintet

New and exciting compositions on the theme: One World

Friday, January 18, 2019

7.30pm

Morley College Holst Room

61 Westminster Bridge Road, London SE1 7HT

Tickets are £8/£5 available on the door.

The Cornelius Cardew Concerts Trust, in partnership with the Music Department of Morley College, is for the fourth year in succession hosting a concert at the College. This concert celebrates first and foremost the path that the renowned composer and musician Cornelius Cardew was instrumental in opening up in the world of music, by encouraging new music to be written that consciously participates in advancing along this path.

Composers in writing to this year's theme have taken further inspiration from two specially written poems by noted poet Carol Rumens on the theme of "One World":

The Hazel Nut (Posing the Problem)

Circling the Square (Posing the Solution)

New works by Michael Chant, Rob Cooper, Carlo Francesco Defranceschi, Alison Doubleday, Seah Cheng Tat, Jane Sarter and Hugh Shrapnel

Performed by Luis Parés and the Quartet De Madrugada

This is the seventh annual concert in memory of James Allen, celebrating and inspired by the path of enlightenment and progress characteristic of the works of Cornelius Cardew.
